SPORTS

CONSUL R. MOROI BRINGS VICTORY TO ASAHI SQUAD

Hon. R. Moroi, Japanese consul, started things off at Mollili Field Sunday before the game between the Asahi and the Filipinos, and the good work done was an object lesson to the Asahis and they went out and defeated the Filipinos by a score of 5 to 2 in the baseball game from start to finish.

Consul Moroi was sent out on the mound to hurl the first ball across the plate and Hon. T. Woonhuan, the Chinese consul, was at bat. Consul Moroi uncovered a curve which had the Chinese consul baffled and as a result had two strikes on him before Consul Woonhuan fouled out on a hard hit ball.

If Andoy, the Filipino catcher, had not made a wild throw the score might have been even, but he made the wild throw and as a consequence the Asahis, who are about the fastest organization of the size anywhere, finished the game on the long end.

Another Boy Wonder
Little Nushida, the boy wonder, has a boy wonder partner on the Asahis in Maesaka, the midget southpaw who worked like a machine and held the Filipino team to two hits in six innings. He struck out eight batters and worked like a veteran. This is the least number of hits that the Filipinos have secured off a pitcher in many moons. Nushida went in the box in the seventh and allowed but one run and three hits.

King, who hurried for the Filipinos, had the side retired in the third canto, but Andoy threw the ball away and the Japanese players scored four runs. After that the Filipino hurler pitched good ball. King also led his team in hitting with two singles.

Marcel and Garcia were the stars for the Filipinos. Marcel handled five hard chances at third, also hitting a triple to left, and Garcia did some good playing in left field. Boni also broke into the limelight with a one-handed stab. Zenimura's boot of a hard hit ball was the only slip made by the Asahis, and the team played together throughout the game. If these boys will stick together they will show something to the baseball fans of Honolulu. Yamauchi was the leading hitter of the day, getting four clean hits in four times at bat. The Asahis are a big improvement on the Nippons of last year, and should be up in the running this season.

When two amateur teams play through a game with only three errors it speaks well for the class of ball put up by the teams. The Filipinos have a good ball club and with more practice and a little more "pep" should be in the running for the championship cup.

PUNAHOU LANDS YALE MEET AT Y.

The ribbons were presented to Lorrin Thurston. Lane of Kamehameha, Ah Kin Lee of McKinley and Kamehameha of Punahou were the stars. W. T. Rawlins and Hermann von Hoyt were on the committee in charge of the meet. W. F. Frear gave a short talk on the history of the Yale meet.
